

There is an experience awaiting you here in Wells Harbor...

There is a calling to start your adventure.

A perspective; a view you can't get from the shore.

It is quiet, calm and tranquil.

It seeps into your soul as you slowly paddle through the marsh and into the estuary.

Each plunk and drip of water from your paddle becomes a rhythm you can only experience in a kayak.

Breath deep... Relax...

Enjoy this beautiful place,

There are few like it in the world...

I sometimes go out after work, to gather my thoughts out there. I feel centered and whole when I am in a kayak on the water. I feel proud that I have taken time for myself, to lose myself, to get lost in nature. I listen to the silence. I savor it. It is settling out there, away from the bustle of life.
